

Al Hussan acknowledges the significance of parental involvement in creating a well-balanced and structured environment at school for children.

As Parents' Council's initiative to bridge the gaps between the stakeholders of the school, an event was organized in order to discuss the vital role parents can play in raising healthy and socially conscious children.

Pre School parents were invited to attend this presentation titled, "A Holistic Approach to Child Development and Parental Involvement" presented by Mrs. Buthaina Ibrahim (member Parent Council) and Mrs. Saira Muhammad (School Counselor).

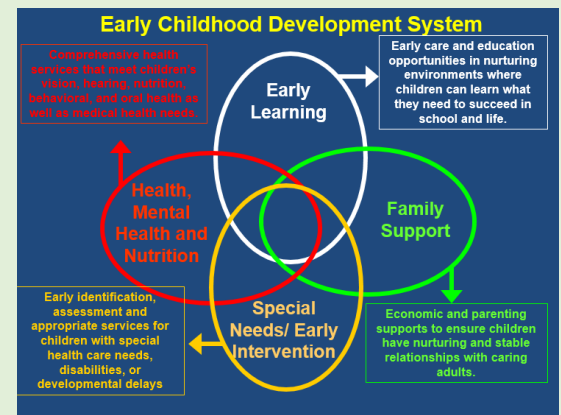

This presentation was held on Tuesday March 29th, 2016 from 3:00 to 5:00pm in the Girls Section Gym.

Parents got involved in many activities like, parenting styles questionnaire, family routine schedules, screen time schedules and making of their children's profiles.

Both presenters conferred a number of researches concerning parental involvement and child's physical, mental and social growth.

Parents greatly appreciated Parents Council's effort to bring the stakeholders together to work for students' greater success and bright future.

Al Hussan aims at continuing to bring such opportunities for parents in the future as well.
